Re: Notice of Claim Based on the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Valdez,

Enclosed please find the Notice of Claim to the Use of Water Based on the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo that you sent to me. As you will see from the reverse side of the Notice, it was not meant to be mailed to me, but to the United States District Court in either Santa Fe or Albuquerque. When I spoke to Mr. Valdez on January 8, I explained that, and I offered to walk the Notice over to the courthouse myself. However, before I could do so, the Court entered an order staying the proceedings (putting the case on hold) due to the government shutdown. Because the Court is temporarily shut down, I cannot do anything with your Notice, so I am sending it back to you.

If you would like your Notice to be filed with the Court, please mail the Notice to the United States District Court Clerk in either Santa Fe or Albuquerque. The address for the United States District Court Clerk in Santa Fe and the address for the United States District Court Clerk in Albuquerque appear on the back of the Notice. You can mail the Notice to either address, and the Clerk will enter the Notice when the Court reopens.

Many thanks for your time and attention. Please don't hesitate to call or email me if you have questions about this letter or the Notice. My contact information appears below.

Sincerely,

Felicity Strachan
